

Nellie H. Armstrong, died June 18, 2013 in St. Petersburg, Florida. She grew up in the Canal Zone and graduated from Cristobal in 1952. She worked for the Panama Canal Company and then went to Washington, D. C. and worked for the Interstate Commerce Commission and the United States Information Agency. She was a member of the Panama Canal Society.

JoAnn Adella Helen Fischer, died February 16, 2011. She was a 1950 graduate of Balboa High School and remained in the Zone until her marriage to John R. Boling and then moved back to the states.

William "Bill" James Jenkins, died October 19, 2013. He graduated from Balboa High School in 1961. He served in the Navy and became a teacher in Martin County Florida. He was a member of the Panama Canal Society.

Robert "Robbie" Thomas Payne, 63, died November 10, 2013 in Augusta Maine. He was a graduate of Balboa High School and received an Associates Degree in Business Administration with Honors from Canal Zone College.

Jean A. Violette, died November 11, 2013 in Seminole, Florida. She met her future husband, Bill, while he was attending General Motors Institute. They stayed in Panama until 1978 when Bill retired from the Panama Canal Company. She was a member of the Panama Canal Society.